Our company

Garys Workwear was founded in 2001 by its current director in the small town Vélez Rubio (Almeria, Spain).

Our ongoing commitment to innovation and quality (both in terms of service and materials) has meant that our company ensures continued development in search of excellence, therefore achieving high-level raw materials thanks to our extraordinary team.

In 2019, after becoming leaders in the sector nationally and years of trading outside of Spain, the company embarked on a large-scale internationalisation process.
